$12 Million In Suits Are Filed

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Justice Department, which Tuesday joined the Tennessee Valley Authority in suing five electrical equipment firms for nearly $12 million for alleged overcharges, says other damage suits are contemplated.

But in making the statement neither Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy nor William Maher, chief of the antitrust division here, elaborated. Maher earlier this year headed the successful prosecution of 29 big electrical firms and 44 of their executives on charges of bid rigging and price fixing which led to Tuesday's action here.

The suit was the first such filed by the federal government. States, cities and private utilities also are planning multimillion-dollar actions against the firms. The General Electric Co. and Westinghouse Electric Corp., America's two biggest manufacturers who were among the five named in the suit Tuesday, said they would vigorously defend themselves against the latest action.

The two firms, both of which pleaded guilty or no defense along with 27 other companies in the huge antitrust case which Maher prosecuted, said their customers were neither cheated nor victimized.

Echoing their sentiments was the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing Co. of West Allis, Wis., which also was named in the civil action and earlier had pleaded guilty or no defense on the antitrust charges.

The two other firms named in the joint civil action filed in U.S. District Court here were the Federal Electric Co. of Newark, N.J., and I-T-E Circuit Breaker Co. of Philadelphia. They, too, had pleaded guilty or no defense on the antitrust charges.

The civil action charged that collusive rigging of bids and the illegal fixing of prices in the sale of oil circuit breakers since 1951 resulted in prices about 40 percent higher than what should have been charged.

Legislature Spotlight On Committees

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—Committee action highlighted the work of the Missouri legislature yesterday.

A change in the federal constitution to let residents of the District of Columbia vote for president and vice president was approved by the Senate judiciary committee. It passed the House earlier.

Another Senate committee endorsed a bill to move the primary election from the first Tuesday in August to the last Tuesday in June.

Such bills have been offered regularly in recent years but never have won their way through the legislature.

Also approved was a change in the state constitution to raise the St. Louis city school tax from 89 cents to $1 without a vote of the people. The $1 figure applies to the rest of the state now.

A house committee approved a bill to require school children to be immunized against polio, smallpox, and diphtheria. The State Health Division estimated about 250,000 children would receive free vaccine the first year at a cost of $150,000.

A child would be exempt only if a physician certified immunization would be dangerous because of his physical condition or if the religious beliefs of the parents barred medical treatment.

Rep. W. M. Harlow, R-Greene County, tried to get a legislative investigation started but the House turned him down on a voice vote.

Harlow said officials of the Corrections Department had testified some state agencies have been buying privately produced goods instead of prison manufactured goods.

Viaduct to Be Re-Opened

The viaduct at Washington and Main over the Missouri Pacific tracks, will be opened at 2 p. m. Friday with a ceremony and cutting of the ribbon by Mayor Abe Silverman.

The public is invited to be present at the ceremony and to drive their cars over it, with the news services given the privilege of going over it first, according to Glenn Lewis, councilman.

Lewis stated that there has been much interest in the viaduct which has been closed for sometime for repairs and the date of its opening again for traffic.

In Religious Groups

School Aid Issue Harmony Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy called today for religious harmony, warning that if the country divides on the school aid issue "our national strength" will be sapped.

In a two-point proposal to solve what he termed "this sensitive issue," he:

1. Urged Congress, as he has done before, to pass his $2.3 billion public school assistance bill without proposed amendments calling for loans to parochial and other private schools below the college level.

2. Pledged that his administration would then cooperate with Congress in studies of the question whether loans to church schools, or tax exemptions for the parents of their students, would be constitutional.

In expressing hope the controversy won't divide the country, Kennedy said:

"... I am hopeful that when the smoke is cleared there will continue to be harmony among the various religious groups of the country. I am going to do everything that I can to make sure that harmony exists, because it reaches far beyond the question of education and goes, in a very difficult time of our country, to an important ingredient of our national strength.

"So I am confident that the people who are involved outside the government, and members of Congress and the administration, will attempt to conduct the discussion on this sensitive issue in such a way as to maintain the strength of the country and not divide it."

A reporter told Kennedy his election had been regarded in some quarters as a victory over religious prejudice. The newsman asked whether the President feels the current controversy over the education bill is provoking religious prejudice.

Kennedy replied he is hopeful that it will not do so.

The reporter had spoken of what he called the inflexible stand of some Roman Catholic Church officials in seeking federal aid for parochial schools.

Kennedy said both Catholics and Protestants are entitled to their view and have a right to express them.

The President said it is quite appropriate that these groups should "not change their views because of the religion of the occupant of the White House."

Seeking August Date For New Arms Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy disclosed today the United States has suggested that East-West negotiations on general disarmament be resumed in August.

Originally Kennedy is reported to have sent word to Soviet Premier Khrushchev that broad-scale disarmament talks should not be started until Sept. 11.

That report was carried in today's New York Times.

The Times Washington dispatch said Khrushchev objected "with some vigor."

Kennedy said at his news conference today that "we have suggested we will be prepared" to start general disarmament negotiations again in August, after first suggesting a new start in September.

From 30 to 40 on Broadway

Request to Increase Speed Limit Tabled

A request to increase the speed limit on Broadway to 40 miles per hour was tabled by the Citizens Traffic Advisory Committee at a meeting Tuesday night, until further study can be made.

The opinion of members was, at this time, that the speed limit should not be increased and many factors were taken into consideration.

More rear-end collisions are thought possible if the top speed is hiked ten miles an hour. Schools and churches along Broadway and immediately off Broadway were considered and are apparently going to be considered even more in the committee's study.

Several members said they had been contacted by individuals regarding the possibility of upping the speed limit, and majority of the callers indicated they were satisfied with 30 miles per hour.

Other matters taken up by the committee included three additional loading zones at various places in the city as follows: southside of west Main near Osage; west of alley on north side of west Fifth between Ohio and Osage; east side of Ohio south of alley near the theater; and north side of Second near Osage. All of these loading zones were approved by the committee. Right turns on the red light at two traffic signals, at 16th and Grand, and Main and Grand were approved by the committee. (Please turn to Page 4, Col. 6)

Senate Backs Up, Passes Check Bill

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—The Missouri Senate backed up today and passed a "hot check" bill it defeated yesterday.

The vote killing it yesterday was 15-14, three short of passage. The vote sending it to the House today was 18-15.

The measure, sponsored by Sen. Noel Cox, R-Spokane, would make it a felony punishable by up to five years in prison to write an insufficient fund check of $50 or more. Cox said he wanted to stop a wave of bad checks in the state. Opponents charged the bill would merely turn the prosecuting attorney's office into a collection agency.

On this final day for bill introduction, the senate received a flood of new bills with more to come later in the day. The House shuts off bill introduction April 4 after its Easter recess.

New bills today included measures to:

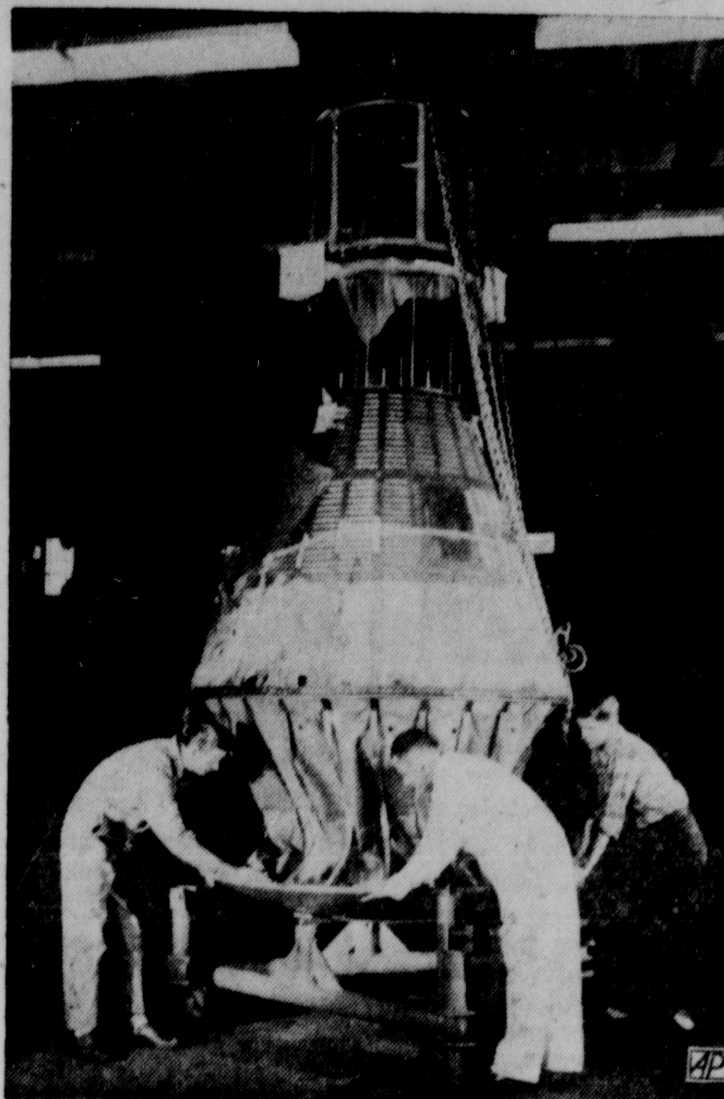

Raise the maximum old age assistance payment from $65 to $75 a month.

Authorize the highway commission to set up speed zones.

Bar drunkenness in schools, churches, courthouses and other public places.

Stall Escape Test On Mercury Rocket

LANGLEY AIR FORCE BASE, Va. (AP) — A test of the escape system of a Project Mercury space craft, scheduled for Thursday at Wallops Island, has been postponed until Saturday or Monday.

Bid Is Accepted On Gym Bleachers

Despite the fact that other bids were lower, the Sedalia Board of Education Tuesday night accepted the bid submitted by the Chapman-Young Equipment Co. on bleachers for the gymnasium in the new building under construction at Smith-Cotton High School.

The Board, after considerable discussion, accepted the Chapman-Young bid of $16,847, because the Brunswick bleachers were considered to be more suitable. The equipment is of vinyl-on-steel material, the first such bleachers to be offered, and considering the fact that maintenance and replacement costs would be lower over a long period, the bleachers should be cheaper in the long run.

Bids were opened on backstops for the new gym, but as the low bidder was within $120 of the contractor's estimate, it was decided to reject all bids and allow the contractor to install the backstops. About $2,000 was saved in taking bids on the bleachers, rather than award the job to the contractor.

The board discussed other alternates in the construction of both the gym and Heber U. Hunt Elementary School, but as all of the people involved were not present, and all of the specifications were not available, the alternates were tabled.

In another development concerning the $1,665,000 school improvement program, architect Maxwell T. Sanford revealed that the plans for the additional rooms on the second floor of Smith-Cotton High School are nearing completion, and will be ready for study by the Board in about two weeks.

The new rooms are to be added during the summer vacation. It was brought out by Sanford that the work will take approximately (Please turn to page 4, Col. 7)

Recalls Amaro Making Coffee

Lawyer Says Amaro In KC Day Reported As Seen Here

By Steve Underwood (Kansas City Star)

Robert Meacham, a Kansas City lawyer, testified in a sworn deposition yesterday that he was with Frank John Amaro at the Bruno Bonding company more than an hour during the afternoon the latter is accused of being in Sedalia, setting up an arson attempt at the Gordon building.

Prosecutor William A. Collet, Don Hutson, an assistant prosecutor, and Clancy Tull, a Kansas City lawyer and state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, who has entered the case in Amaro's behalf, attended the 2-hour deposition session in Meacham's law office.

Meacham's office is at 607 East Eleventh street, which is next door to the Bruno Bonding company.

A Hearing March 23 Amaro, a former Bruno bondsman, also known as Johnny Green, was present. He is charged with attempted arson and is scheduled to appear for a preliminary hearing in Sedalia March 23.

The deposition of Meacham, a former police officer in Omaha, Mission, and Independence, was taken at the request of Tull. Collet said J. R. Fritz, Pettis County prosecutor, had called him Monday afternoon and asked that a representative of the prosecutor be present.

New Farm Program Planned By Kennedy

To Insist On Control

US Emphatic On Test Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States will insist on a substantial and effective control system in any pact with the Soviets to outlaw nuclear tests, officials said today.

While no control system can be 100 per cent foolproof, authorities said, U. S. negotiators will insist on a system strong enough to be a potent deterrent against any sneak violations of a nuclear test ban.

Controls have been the key issue in the Geneva test ban talks which have been going on among the United States, Britain and Russia at Geneva since November 1958.

While much progress has been made at the lengthy conference, East and West still are split on major points involving how many policing inspections should be made to sites of suspected explosions and who should be on the inspection teams.

U. S. experts figure that if a treaty is agreed on, remaining gaps in the controls can be narrowed through further research and technical advances will enable the controls to become more simplified and more effective.

Arthur H. Dean, new head of the U. S. negotiating team at Geneva, gave a secret 2½ hour briefing to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee Tuesday. He leaves for Geneva from New York tonight. The talks resume next Tuesday after a postponement giving the new Kennedy Administration a chance to review.

President Kennedy issued a statement Tuesday saying the United States is ready to present proposals which would be "fair to all" joining the test ban.

Dean said "we are going to use all of our powers of ingenuity and persuasion" to arrive at an agreement.

Election Days Are Near For City, County

School Tax Levy, Councilmen, Health Center On Ballots

Late March and early April is election time in Sedalia. Beginning next Tuesday, a series of elections will begin, to decide such issues as a Pettis County Health Center, the annual school tax levy, the election of City Councilmen and members of the Board of Education.

The election Tuesday will be a primary election of party candidates for City Councilmen. The winning party candidates will face each other in a general election April 4.

In the primary election for nomination as party candidates for Councilmen Tuesday, there are 12 candidates. A 13th candidate, A. B. Warren, Democrat from the First Ward, withdrew shortly after being filed by William Coughey.

Three of the present Councilmen are seeking nomination and reelection to their seats. They are Earl Paxton, Democrat, from the first ward; Woodrow Garrison, Democrat, second ward; and Jack Cunningham, Republican, fourth ward.

Councilman Pat Clark, Democrat of the third ward, who has served two terms, did not file for nomination and reelection.

In the first ward, Councilman Paxton is opposed for the nomination by Harry Burford, and Robert J. Bader, 1907 Maple Lane. One (Please turn to page 4 column 5)

Farmers May Write Own Crop Plans

Legislative Veto Would Act As Control Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is expected to ask Congress Thursday to approve a radically new farm setup under which growers would write their own crop programs, subject to legislative veto.

Congressional sources said the President will seek a broad delegation of powers to him and to Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman to deal directly with farmers in forming programs embracing kindred and competing commodities.

The farmers themselves would be asked to agree on the type of federal controls, price supports and other government props they believe are workable for the particular group of growers involved.

As an example, growers of wheat, corn, oats, grain sorghum and kindred crops would be asked to form their own program. Another group might include producers of cotton seed, soybeans and peanut oil.

The hoped-for result would be to take out of the hands of Congress the job of having to draft intricate and controversial legislation covering the diversified field of agriculture.

This would apply to the farm problem the same principle involved in congressional grants to the President to reorganize government departments and agencies.

As in legislation of this latter type, Congress would retain a veto over the decisions of the individual farm groups. These groups could put their programs into effect by a two-thirds vote of the growers involved.

But if Congress decided within a specified time limit—probably 60 days—that the particular program failed to fit the over-all agricultural pattern or involved too large expenditures, it could kill the program by a majority vote.

Trial Halts While Judge Hears Tapes

FORT PIERCE, Fla. (AP)—Floyd Holzapfel's tape-recorded tale of the Chillingworth murders continued today in the secrecy of the judge's chambers. The jury played shuffleboard and enjoyed the sun at a nearby hotel.

Circuit Judge D. C. Smith said he and opposing attorneys would sit 12 hours a day until the playback of the tape is completed, and by Friday morning "we will be back to testimony before the jury."

But he didn't guarantee that the trial of Joseph A. Peel Jr., would not resume its courtroom phase suddenly at any moment.

Just as the tapes were about to roll Tuesday morning, State Attorney Phil O'Connell got the jury recalled and introduced a witness who said Peel tried to poison Holzapfel in his jail cell at West Palm Beach.

The playing of the tape finally got started at 1 p. m., and continued until 5 in the evening. Today and Thursday, Smith said, it will be run from 8 a. m., until 11 p. m., with breaks for lunch and for dinner.

On the tape is Holzapfel's story of how he drowned Circuit Judge C. E. Chillingworth and Chillingworth's wife, Marjorie, June 15, 1955.

He told it to two men he believed to be his friends during a four-day drinking spree in a Melbourne hotel.

Girl Scouts Hold Awards Court, Tea

Troop 66, Mark Twain School Old Trails Council of Girl Scouts, held its court of awards and a tea, Monday afternoon, March 13, from 4 to 5 p.m. in the Mark Twain auditorium at which parents and friends were guests.

The flag ceremony was led by Twisssters Patrol, Candy Wells, leader, with the pledge of allegiance, Girl Scout's promise, and song, "America" and "America the Beautiful."

Two skits were presented by "The Untouchables" patrol, Luan Zack, leader, entitled "Sweet Betsey for Pike" and "The Deaf Woman's Courtship."

Presentation of awards were made by the co-leaders, Mrs. Theodore Wells and Mrs. Harry Wahrendorck, and Mrs. Joe Wright, assistant.

Emily McCann, Susan Laws and Pam Silva were invested as Girl Scouts having passed their tenderfoot requirements and were also presented the second class badge having accomplished this while working with the rest of the troop.

Proficiency badges were awarded as follows: Homemaking, Mary Warren; backyard camper, Karen Hicks; adventurer, Karen Hicks; sports, Luan Zack; First Aid to Animals, Emily McCann; Campcraft, Karen Hicks, Glenda Arnall, Candy Wells, Luan Zack and Linda Wright.

Receiving Dabbler badges were: Susan Laws, Candy Wells, Cheryl Wahrendorck, Mary Beth Viets, Karen Hicks, Glenda Arnall, Emily McCann, Ruth Henderson, Pam Silva, Linda Wright, Mary Warren, Donna Poundstone, Linda Moyer, Ellen Lindstrom.

Receiving Cook badges were: Candy Wells, Cheryl Wahrendorck, Mary Warren, Ruth Henderson, Karen Hicks, Pam Silva, Connie Robertson, Donna Poundstone, Mary Beth Viets, Ellen Lindstrom and Shirley Edwards.

Announcements were made concerning the Juliette Low program which will be held April 15, for Neighborhood A, cookies sales, camps available for summer; Camp Red Bud, sessions at Camp Sakajawea and Camp Pin Oak.

An interesting exhibit arranged by the "Untouchables" patrol, had displays of articles made by the girls to pass badge requirements. These included home decoration items, figures made out of pipe-cleaners, art work, tea towels, embroidery work, and many other articles.

Refreshments were served by the "Flopping Flintstones," Connie Robertson, leader, from an attractively decorated table, for which this patrol was also responsible. The table was covered with a lace cloth and the centerpiece was a very lovely Girl Scout emblem in green and gold with the letters "G. S." in white. Crepe paper streamers in the same colors completed the decorations.

The clean-up was in charge of the "Twisssters."

Shotgun Blast Is Fatal to Woman, 25

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Mrs. Norma Jean Young, 25, who was wounded in the abdomen by a shotgun blast Feb. 23, died Tuesday at Baptist Memorial Hospital.

She was the mother of two children and was expecting a third in July.

Mrs. Young was dusting in a closet at her home when she knocked over a 410 gauge shotgun.

Ag Secretary Seeking Dope On Soybeans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman said Tuesday he is seeking information from the soybean industry before announcing the price support level for the 1961 crop.

He made the comment after meeting with officials of the American Soybean Association. The secretary did not indicate when he would announce the support price.

Freeman in previous proposals for an emergency feed grain program for 1961 said he expected to raise the soybean support level from $1.85 a bushel to $2.30.

He said this was designed to induce some farmers to cut feed grain acreage and increase soybean production.

Freeman met Tuesday with

ANTI-TANK WEAPON—A soldier aims the new Army XM-72 rocket grenade which is said to be equally effective against tanks, emplacements and fortifications.

Charles Simpson of Waterville, Minn., president of the American Soybean Association, and George Strayer of Hudson, Iowa, executive vice president of the association.

Simpson said afterward that while his association has taken the position that the support level should be set at less than $2.30 a bushel, "we have no quarrel with Secretary Freeman."

The Soybean Association advocates a support level 1.8 times that of the corn support price. Freeman suggested raising the corn support from $1.06 to $1.20. On this basis, the soybean growers would prefer a soybean support of $2.16 a bushel. The present market price is well above that figure.

Broadway Play Full Of Solid Appeal

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic
NEW YORK (AP)—The gay light and somber dark of Oscar Wilde's world shift strangely through Micheal Mac Liammoir's new one-man Broadway entertainment.

"The Importance of Being Oscar," which opened Tuesday night for limited engagement at the Lyceum, is a program of solid appeal for fans of the exotic Victorian and for enthusiasts of stage readings. Others are apt to be less ecstatic.

The bright side gleams in the first half as Mac Liammoir culls from the dandy's early lily-waving days with excerpts from "The Picture of Dorian Gray," "Salome" and "The Importance of Being Earnest."

The mood abruptly reverses after the intermission, to follow the doomed poet through the distressing years following conviction on charges of immorality. The much-worked-over trial episode itself is mercifully "supposed to take place," the program notes, during the interlude.

Mac Liammoir being solidly pro-Wilde, the entertainment at this point dilutes its dramatic effectiveness with an apologetic defensiveness.

The Irish star, who has previously exhibited "The Importance of Being Oscar" at various overseas stops, moves through his paces with some florid overtones, but brings to each segment interpretively inventive understanding. Some of the spots seem extended beyond proper measure.

The performance is enacted against blacked-out stage background with a sofa, table, arm chair and a pedestal of flowers as the only props—the effective purpose being to suggest "an empty, elegant space, instead of a room."

Hilton Edwards, Mac Liammoir's 30-year associate, is credited with the staging of the production, which is the elaborate collaboration of S. Hurok and Roger L. Stevens in association with Sir Michael Redgrave and Fred Sadoff.

A critical judgment, Wilde once remarked that what the observer dislikes is "unwholesome," what he does like is "curiously exotic." This program more precisely is quaint bric-a-brac.

Castro Exhibiting Arms Allegedly Sent Insurgents From US

HAVANA (AP)—The Fidel Castro regime Tuesday night opened an exhibition of American-made arms and ammunition it claims the United States air-dropped for anti-government insurgents in the Escambray Mountains.

The large display, guarded by armed militiamen, attracted a big turnout. Viewers were lined up three abreast for a distance of two blocks from the hall.

In Havana's shopping district fires broke out almost simultaneously in two nationalized stores. No injuries were reported.

Fires In City

A 1960 Ford received about $75 damage at 1:01 p.m. Tuesday in a fire of undetermined origin. City firemen were summoned and extinguished the blaze which occurred in the parking lot at Bing's No. 1 Market, 11th and Limit. The car was reported to belonging to C. C. Rhodes, 121 East Second.

Too Many Juveniles In Reform Schools

OSLO, Norway (AP) — A judge reluctantly sent a 14-year-old boy to jail for stealing cars when the authorities couldn't find a reform school for him. Norway's correction schools are all filled and have a waiting list of convicted juvenile delinquents.

Election

Councilman Garrison is opposed for the nomination by George "Bud" Bryant. The winner of the nomination means election as no Republican filed in the ward.

The third ward has three Democrats seeking nomination in Lawrence Koeller, Lawrence Randall and Carl R. Walker, 2315 East 16th Street. Cleo M. Cecil is the only Republican to file in the third ward.

The fourth ward is the only ward where a primary contest did not develop, although both parties have a candidate for the Council. Councilman Jack Cunningham is seeking re-election while his Democratic opponent in the general election on April 4 will be Harvey C. Herrick.

On March 28, a county-wide election to determine a County Health Center issue will be held. This is the same issue that was defeated last year. Pettis County is seeking to establish a health center, with the funds coming from a special tax levy to be determined by the voters.

A similar health service was operated by the county until shortly after the issue was defeated last year, on a trial basis with the funds for the experiment paid out of general revenue.

In conjunction with the general election March 4, Sedalia School District 200 is conducting a special election for two school board members, and for the annual school tax levy. The terms of Charles Hurt and Edward Kehde will expire this year. They have not indicated publicly whether or not they will seek re-election.

The school tax levy will be the same as last year. The Board of Education is authorized under state law to levy $1. An additional levy of $1.37, plus an additional 45 cents for the sinking and interest fund will go before the voters. The total levy is to be $2.82.

Mrs. R. W. Evans, 611 West Fourth, charged with blocking a driveway, failed to appear and her $2 bond was ordered forfeited.

Circuit Court

Margaret C. Baker filed a petition for divorce against Richard E. Baker in Circuit Court March 14. Henry Salvater is the attorney for the plaintiff.

Judy Wagner filed a petition for divorce against Robert J. Wagner in Circuit Court March 14. William F. Brown is the attorney for the plaintiff.

Request

(Continued from Page One) on a trial basis with an ordinance to be sought from the City Council if the flow of traffic is aided by this move.

Several other intersections were discussed regarding right turns on the red signal. The Highway Department is to be contacted regarding such an arrangement along Broadway, and a further study is to be made at other intersections. Consensus was that the committee would await reaction to right turns at the two intersections on Grand.

Parking restriction on the east side of Kentucky from Broadway to 16th was approved by the committee and is to be referred to the City Council. Fire Chief Emmett Vaughn, a member of the committee, pointed out that the street is used as the Fire Department's "fire alley" to the south side and that parking on both sides of the street was slowing down the fire truck.

City Engineer Robert Cunningham pointed out that the street measures only 24 feet from curb to curb which could possibly crowd the fire trucks with parking on both sides of the street.

A request for two parking areas for the sheriff and his deputy was approved and are to be located at the south-east corner of the courthouse square.

A request for two additional parking spaces on east Fifth from the Yellow Cab Co., was tabled for further study, after some discussion.

The committee also approved a recommendation to change all loading zone parking signs to read: "Cars 5 Minutes, Trucks, 20 Minutes," to agree with the City Ordinance, cited by Police Chief Ralph Hamlin. The recommendation came to the committee following reports of passenger car parking in loading zones for 20 minutes, which is in agreement with the present signs, not in agreement with the City Ordinance.

Additional speed limit signs along Main were recommended by Pinkney Miller. Miller pointed out that only three signs of this type are located along this street and one of them was difficult to see.

Another request from Fire Chief Vaughn was approved by the committee. He asked removal of two parking meters on the west side of Kentucky between Main and the railroad tracks to facilitate faster movement of the fire truck through this congested area.

A request that white lines be painted across Broadway in front of the Wesley Methodist Church was tabled for a further study of the traffic situation in that area with specific regard to number of persons using this area as a cross walk.

Members attending the meeting were: W. A. Smith, chairman; U. L. Howerton, Vaughn, Hamlin, Harry Naugel, William D. Hill, Miller, Cunningham, and Dr. D. C. Proctor.

Denies Damages Over Mortuary

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A circuit court jury has denied the damage claim of a man who said his critically ill wife was taken to a funeral home instead of to a hospital.

Rufus B. Leonard Sr. testified Tuesday he called the Wilson-Sammon Funeral Home for an ambulance after his wife collapsed at their home in May 1959.

The funeral home maintained she was dead when the ambulance crew arrived at the Leonard house.

In other action the Board took under consideration a request from Pete Clow, cub scout representative, for use of a school building for a scout leader training program April 9. As this is a Sunday, and building maintenance personnel are not required to work on Sundays, granting such requests is against board policy.

The Board passed resolutions calling for the school election to be held in conjunction with the City election April 4. The school election will include the election of two board members and voting on the school tax levy, which is the same as last year. The Hurlbut Printing Co., the sole bidder, was awarded contract to furnish election supplies for $169.

He said Amaro went into a back room and the coffee was ready in 15, 20 or 25 minutes.

The lawyer recalled that Amaro was standing behind Dorothy Bruno's desk most of the time.

'Fair Lady' Money Maker For Producer

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There is nothing like a dame—named "My Fair Lady."

In celebration of the anniversary of the musical's debut five years ago tonight, the sponsors disclose formidable evidence of her un-fading charms.

The still-running Broadway production and others around the globe have amassed a gross of $48 million. This has returned a $7 million profit on a $400,000 investment.

The biggest chunk of coin has come in at the Hellinger Theater original, where three million spectators thus far have paid $17 million. An equal number have witnessed the national touring company.

Piling up the revenue, London has contributed $6,330,000. The Scandinavian take is $4 million. Two Australian companies add another $4.6 million.

Foreign language versions, controlled by Lars R. Schmidt, the husband of Ingrid Bergman, have carried "My Fair Lady" across Europe. The Stockholm version is in its third year, and the Amsterdam incarnation is the first for an American musical in Dutch. Additionally the show has exhibited in Mexico City and visited Moscow.

The boxoffice receipts aren't all of the profit. Other revenue has come in from the sale of 3,200,000 original cast albums (an all-time record) and from license fees for commercial tieups with the show's title and sheet music sales.

The Columbia Broadcasting System financed the show and shares the profits with Broadway producer Herman Levin; Frederick Loewe and Alan Jay Lerner, composers of the score; and the estate of Bernard Shaw, sire of the play "Pygmalion" upon which the work is based.

Already the biggest Broadway moneymaker of all time, "My Fair Lady" is shooting now for the performance champion.

Come June 13, the musical will kick off its 2,177th performance.

According to Richard Maney, the publicist, this will break the record of "Oklahoma!"—a point disputed by the supporters of the Rodgers-Hammerstein classic.

In the record books "Oklahoma!" stands at 2,249 performances. This, replies Maney, includes 73 free benefit performances for soldiers on leave during the World War II years and they shouldn't be counted.

Out For Political Scalps

It isn't in the nature of most politicians to rest for long. As soon as the fatigue lines from the 1960 campaign disappeared, party strategists began planning for 1962 and 1964. Being on the outside in more places, the Republicans are working harder at it right now.

Indeed, as a necessary preliminary, they're concentrating on 1961, hoping to make it a lively springboard to later things.

First attention is on the April 4 Texas senatorial election, where in a weird free-for-all one Republican runs against some 70 Democrats. GOP hopes of final victory are not high, but a big effort is being made all the same.

The real showcase race for the Republicans is the important New Jersey governorship, where Gov. Robert Meyner retires this year in favor of an unknown Democratic candidate, Judge Richard Hughes.

GOP leaders vividly recall how Democrats stunned the country in 1953 with Meyner's first victory, achieved only a year after the 1952 Eisenhower sweep. They believe that Democratic stroke started a winning psychology that yielded progressively greater returns in following years—and finally the White House again in 1960.

Republicans think they can make history repeat in their favor. So they eagerly await April 18, when their New Jersey standard-bearer will be chosen from among three men, including former Secretary of Labor James Mitchell.

For national effect, they would also like to upset Mayor Robert Wagner of New York, should he bid for a third term as now expected.

Beset by scandals and widely reported as unhappy in his burdensome job, Wagner is rated by Republicans as a pigeon they can pick off with the "right man." Some are willing to take a "fusion" candidate who might be neither a Republican nor even a politician. They want the prestige of taking New York from the Democrats.

No realistic Republican thinks these two swallows will make a bright presidential summer in 1964. But many feel victories in New Jersey and New York City would get them off winging in the way they must to gain bigger goals later on.

Willy Brandt Picked As a Comer

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—The man who may be the next chancellor of Germany, Willy Brandt, has been getting headlines during his visit to the USA. But one person not in the headlines is the diplomat who long ago picked Brandt as a comer and persuaded U.S. authorities to give him more than the time of day.

She is a member of the Dulles family you don't hear much about—Eleanor Dulles, sister of the late secretary of state.

There are two Dullesses who have been in the headlines—John Foster and his brother Allen, head of Central Intelligence. The other Dulles whom you seldom hear about is their sister, Eleanor, who sits on the German desk of the State Department and is an expert on Berlin.

Miss Dulles entered the State Department in December 1952 after Eisenhower was elected but while Truman was still in office, by going to see James Riddleberger, then head of the German division, and telling him: "My brother says he can't appoint me to the State Department, but if I get in under the Democrats before he becomes secretary of state, then he can continue me."

Miss Dulles probably earned her keep by one move alone—her recommendation to help build up Willy Brandt as leader of the Social Democratic party in West Germany. She saw that he had a future, knew that octogenarian Konrad Adenauer could not last forever; also knew that the Social Democratic party which opposes Adenauer was taking an anti-American drift toward Russia. Under Willy Brandt's present leadership, however, that drift has been reversed.

If he becomes chancellor of Germany after next September's election, U.S. and West German relations will remain just as cordial as before.

Pressure From Powell

Congressman Adam Clayton Powell of Harlem, the second Negro in history to serve as chairman of a congressional committee, is operating quite differently from the other Negro chairman, Congressman William Dawson of Chicago, both Democrats.

Powell is throwing his weight around. He has been issuing directives that other congressmen who are chairmen of subcommittees could not make long-distance phone calls without coming to Powell for permission. He has also banned press releases by sub-chairmen unless OK'd by him. Or if he was absent, Powell authorized his fellow congressmen to see his secretary, Louise M. Dargans, to get permission to make a phone call or issue a press release.

This caused a furor. In a recent closed-door session, other congressmen saw red.

"If you don't withdraw these absurd memos, they'll wind up in my wastebasket," Rep. Frank Thompson of New Jersey told Powell.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

MINORITY PRESIDENT—Everybody has heard about the photo-finish win by Kennedy last November. Maybe you're tired of the subject, but then maybe you'd like to win a bet.

Here's how. Bet that more people voted for Nixon than for Kennedy? You're sure to get takers. Everybody knows (?) "Kennedy won," and "an inch is as good as a mile."

Well, the inch belongs to Nixon. No one can honestly give Kennedy the votes that should be credited to Senator Byrd of Virginia. This point has been almost completely overlooked.

To save you the trouble of proving your bet, here are the figures as given in the World Almanac for 1961, page 44:

Total Democratic Vote . . . 34,082,289

Total Republican Vote . . . 33,881,866

This shows an apparent margin for Kennedy of 200,423. But "don't judge a tree by its bark."

The Democratic total of 34,082,289 includes the Alabama Democratic vote of 324,050, and the Mississippi vote of 108,362. All of Mississippi's 8 electoral votes were cast for Byrd. Alabama's 11 electors gave Kennedy 5, and Byrd 6.

Six-elevenths of Alabama's 324,050 Democratic votes should therefore be credited to Byrd, and all of Mississippi's 108,362. These total 285,116. Subtracting this from the total Democratic vote of 34,082,289, leaves Kennedy 33,797,173.

This is 84,696 less than the total Republican vote for Nixon.

So, collect your bet! The only place where Kennedy won is the Electoral College.

MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL APPEAL: Texas Women Rebel.—Texas is a state that has and cherishes a reputation for doing things in a big way, but, according to a large number of militant women, it has overdone the matter of laws discriminatory against the feminine sex. To be exact, it is charged that there are 44 statutes whose general effect is to classify women with children and idiots.

According to an extensive and interesting article in the Jan. 14 issue of The Saturday Evening Post, war has been joined by the 8,400 members of the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs to get women precisely equal rights. It will, they say, require an amendment to the Texas constitution and they make light of any statement that women will lose valuable protections now accorded them. They declare they can take care of themselves.

Texas is not, by the way, the only state in which women feel they are not accorded the rights and privileges they deserve, and so the battle in the Lone Star hallowick is being viewed with interest in many places. There is a move for an equal rights amendment to the United States Constitution but it is believed the Texas ladies have the better chance to get something done any time soon.

referring to his directives. "I resent such dictatorial tactics and, of course, will ignore them."

Congressmen John Dent of Pennsylvania and James Roosevelt of California, the latter from a heavy Negro district, chimed in with Thompson. Finally Powell agreed to withdraw his directives and let subcommittee chairmen use their discretion about phone calls and press relations.

Immediately, there occurred another blow-up over Powell's insistence that an amendment covering hotel and restaurant workers, already vetoed by a subcommittee, be restored in the minimum wage bill.

"President Kennedy doesn't want this amendment in the bill and has said so," objected Dent. "It isn't feasible at this time and may wreck the whole bill on the House floor."

Powell has a large number of hotel and restaurant workers in his Harlem district. He shot back: "I think it should be kept in the bill. The subcommittee rejected it without approval of a caucus of the full committee's Democrats."

"You, yourself, are acting without caucus approval by arbitrarily trying to restore the amendment," fumed Dent. "That isn't very democratic."

Republican Rep. William Ayres of Ohio then sided with Powell.

"The gentleman from Ohio," chided Roosevelt, "and some of his Republican colleagues apparently would like to see the bill loaded with crippling amendments, so that it will be defeated on the House floor. The gentleman himself has said that he is against the bill."

In a showdown vote, Powell and the Republicans failed by 18-12 to keep the hotel amendment in the wage bill, after initially restoring it.

Tire-Tax Hike

President Kennedy probably doesn't realize it, but his proposed tire-tax hike will hit a lot of small businessmen who already are suffering tough competition from the big tire companies—the retailers.

The retailers sprang up from almost nothing a few years ago to demonstrate that you could take discarded tires and make them so usable that today a large percentage of truck and airplane tires are retreads. But having proved this, the small retailers watched the big tire manufacturers enter their field and take part of their business away.

Now comes another blow. To pay for the new highway program, Kennedy proposes to increase the tax on retreading rubber at the rate of 33 per cent.

The tax on new tires is to go up from eight cents to ten cents a pound, the tax on tread rubber from three cents to ten cents. While the final tax on both new tires and tread rubber remains the same—ten cents—the increase for the retreaders is far greater—probably enough to put about 10,000 retreaders out of business.

CHANGE WILL AFTER MARRIAGE

QUESTION: Is it necessary to change your Will after marriage? FACTS: Following the death of his wife, Jim Brown made a Will in which he left all of his property to his children in equal shares. Two years later he remarried. The new Mrs. Brown, a widow, also had a Will in which she left all of her property to her children. Since the real and personal property of both was of about the same value, they concluded it would not be necessary to change either Will. The new marriage did not work out very well, and the couple soon separated. Shortly thereafter, Mr. Brown died and his children offered his Will for probate. His widow objected and claimed an interest in the property.

DECISION: Under Missouri Law, although the marriage did not invalidate Brown's Will, his widow was permitted to renounce it and claim a share of the property the same as if he had died without making a Will. As a result, she received all of the household goods, furniture and appliances, a homestead allowance, an amount sufficient for one year's support of herself and a widow's share of the remainder of the property.

A Will prepared before marriage should always be re-examined for necessary changes. (This column is to inform and should not be regarded as legal advice for any specific case.)

JFK and His 10-point Latin Program

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy got hemisphere attention with the 10-point program he laid down this week for Latin America. But there wasn't much new in it. He had said most of it before, and then some.

During the presidential campaign—last Oct. 18 at Tampa—he proposed a 12-point program. But this latest one got maximum staging. He unveiled it during a White House reception for 250 Latin American diplomats.

They were generous in their praise for what he said. But back home officials of their governments were much more restrained. Some expressed disappointment.

It sounded big, the way Kennedy unfolded his program. But the unanswered question is: How really big is it? It isn't a Marshall plan like the one under which this country poured billions into Europe to get it on its feet after the war.

There's a difference. The millions of Europe were both educated and skilled and needed money to get their industries going again. In Latin America millions lack education and skills, too.

With them it's a problem of trying to bring them abreast of the 20th century. Kennedy didn't put a price tag on his proposals. He told the Latin Americans in effect that they'll have to help themselves to get help from us.

But he put it much more gently than that. As for immediate money he asked Congress to let him spend $500 million in Latin America for projects like education, health, housing, better use of land.

President Eisenhower asked Congress for the same amount and for the same purposes. Congress approved the spending but never actually voted the money. Now Kennedy has asked Congress to take that next and final step.

He acknowledged in Tampa last year $500 million is far from enough to meet Latin American needs.

He said then nearly all our economic aid to Latin America—which has been getting only about 5 per cent of our total foreign aid—has been in the form of loans to buy American exports.

He said Latin Americans would pay more in interest that year (1960) to the Export-Import Bank than the entire $500 million which Eisenhower asked from Congress.

Most of what Kennedy suggested this week was vague and generalized. But the heart of it was obvious enough.

He suggested long range aid over 10 years, based on cooperative, long-range planning by the Latin Americans.

Perhaps, although Kennedy denied any such intention, this 10-point, 10-year program, if it is to get moving, will mean the United States must get deeply involved in the internal affairs of its southern neighbors.

Many Pitfalls Strew Path Of Man Starting Business

By FAYE HENLE

With jobs scarcer, pay raises smaller, I'll bet many of you are dreaming the great American dream—a business of your own. What does it take to be the boss? What are the ingredients for success? What are the pitfalls?

I had expected to find that you need money, lots of it, to get into business on your own. This is not necessarily true.

Door-to-door selling, one of the oldest ways of being on your own, is now a $2.5 billion industry with 1.5 million participants. It requires no investment on the part of an individual when he handles the products of well-known companies.

The profits can be handsome, ranging from weekly commissions of $30 for part-timers to $200 upwards for full-time sellers, according to the National Association of Direct Selling Companies in Winona, Minn.

A cash outlay of $6,000 to $8,000, with three years to pay the balance, is needed to put you into one of the newest of businesses, coin-operated laundry and dry cleaning establishments. Some 30,000 such installations are now in operation. The amount of money needed to run such an enterprise depends upon what you will have to pay for rent and how many machines you will install in a single store.

According to Jack Coleman, head of Cincinnati's Econ-O-Wash one can net $350 to $400 or more monthly without even working the establishment full-time. Merely get someone to check your

For instance: One of the deepest causes of unrest among the Latin American masses, and one which gives communism a big talking point, is the economic monopoly of the rich on land and resources.

A congressional report last month, made by House members after a trip through Latin America, said one major obstacle to progress there is that 50 per cent of all land is owned by 1½ per cent of the landholders.

Kennedy called for both tax and land reform if the needs of most Latin Americans are to be met. There was a hint in what he said that unless a Latin-American country institutes reforms, it can't expect help.

Also last month two senators—Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Bourke Hickenlooper, R-Iowa—made a report of their own on Latin America. They said: Latin America's upper classes must recognize they can no longer maintain "their traditional elite society and economic monopoly."

If the upper classes seek "blindly and stubbornly to retain all their privileged status they will almost surely lose everything," the senators added.

It's an old story: How to persuade those who have to give up some of it peacefully. If they don't, they may suddenly find the Communists have taken over.

If this should happen in one or two mainland Latin-American countries, the problem of reform might be simplified by scaring both the rich and the governments into fast action to save themselves from total disaster.

shop several times daily, to clean up and report on any machine not in good working order. On the favorable side of the above businesses is the fact that they can be started on a part-time basis without perhaps disrupting your source of income until certain of success.

If you're striking out on your own, without any other source of income, you will need considerably more capital, not merely for the business itself but for living expenses. You should have savings equal to a minimum of three months' living costs, say the experts.

The most important ingredient cited for success is the capacity for hard work. Thinking you can loaf leads to failure.

Principal reasons for business failures are:

Lack of knowledge of competitive conditions.

Lack of technical skill such as not knowing how to purchase raw materials or to stock a retail establishment.

Selection of a poor location for your plant or store.

Insufficient capital or credit. Before you start on your own, experts advise that you know what your exact costs will be for one to two years. Frequently you will have to prepay rent, insurance or goods purchased for several months ahead. You should figure your credit costs and taxes, the wages you may be paying and promotional expenses.

One expert I interviewed warns that published figures on business failures don't show the true story because he says that often an

The Doctor's Mailbag

Warn Doctor You React To Injection of Serum

By Harold Thomas Hyman, M.D.

Here are answers to several inquiries of some urgency.

Q—"I had a serum injection five months ago and it gave me a reaction of hives that lasted almost two weeks. Since then my fingers have become numb although they seemed perfectly normal before the injection. Could this numbness be from the serum? How long does a serum reaction last?"

A—Nerve injury (neuritis) may be part of a serum reaction. And, if so, it is unlikely that its consequences, numbness in this case, will improve appreciably after five months. What is of greater importance, however, is the urgent need for you to know that your serum allergy is also permanent. If you don't give warning of this allergy before you receive an injection of any kind, you may suffer a more severe reaction at your next exposure, one that might even prove fatal.

Q—"My father-in-law has prostate trouble and fears to go to a doctor because he believes that a prostate operation caused cancer in several of his friends. Is this true?"

A—Certainly not. It may well be that his friends were afflicted with prostatic cancer. But you may assure him that the malignancy was present before operation. It could not have been caused by it.

Q—"My son, during World War II service, was in a motorcycle accident and got a bump on the right side of his head near the temple. A few years after his discharge, he began getting headaches and acting kind of peculiar. Every once in a while his mind would go blank and he would talk incoherently. A year ago he had an epileptic attack and we took him to the hospital where they found a scar pressing on his brain in the exact spot where he hurt his head in service. Now they want to do an operation. Do you think this will help him? Is it safe?"

A—By all means persuade your son to have the operation performed. In competent hands, as he would be at a veteran's hospital, the operation imposes little risk and has great prospect for benefit. By far the greater risk would be to refuse operation.

Q—"Is injection treatment for hernia as practical as surgery? Operations scare me. So many of my friends have all kinds of troubles. And sometimes the hernia comes back anyway."

A—I don't know how scared you are of a hernia operation but it's nothing to the fright that seizes me when I think of injection treatment. You must realize that repair of a hernia, which is a defect of the abdominal wall, requires careful handling under direct vision. Injection treatment is a blind procedure in which the operator has to rely solely on his sense of touch. When he injects the irritant, he has very little idea of where it all goes and just what it's going to do. If you want to risk this sort of treatment, no one can stop you. But, as for me, I want no part of it.

Prayer Is A Two-Way Thing

By RALPH W. LOEW, D.D.

"I'd like to thank someone I don't know who to thank." This plaintive comment came from a young man on a train in Japan. We had engaged in a casual conversation that had suddenly brought this expression of a desire to reach beyond self. But where? And to whom? And how?

This is relevant to our own situation, too. All too often prayer has become only a gesture. If we degrade prayer until it has become the merely ceremonial, we have emptied it of meaning. For prayer at its best is conversation.

There was an ancient worthy who had a dream. Having pillowed his head on a stone, he dreamt that angels were going up and down a ladder that stretched between him and Heaven. Jacob's dream has the mark of reality. This is what happens when people pray. It is this two-way traffic that makes the difference.

Prayer isn't self-induced cheer or a psychological exercise. It is the opening of life so that the power needed—and which we can never achieve on our own—may be received. It is knowing Someone to thank.

It will be a discipline for us to pray in this Lenten season, if we pray for the Russian people, and for Castro and, for that matter, for some of our neighbors. What will some of the people pray for in the place where I live?

Sometimes the music makers on Broadway point up a need which we ought to have noted for ourselves. For instance, there's a relevance to the words from "My Fair Lady," in which each verse of the refrain ends with the words, "show me."

entrepreneur headed for failure will sell out, usually at a considerable loss, before he actually fails.

So do careful research, with professional guidance, before launching any contemplated venture.

The conversation of prayer demands this demonstration. Show me! Godly prayer demands acts of godly courage.

I wanted to help the boy on the train and the intricacies of language made it exceedingly difficult. Yet I shall pray for this unknown friend. This is a time which requires men who can live in league with power beyond themselves. We all need to know the God whom we can thank lest we try to distract ourselves from distraction by distraction. Or from frustration by violent rebellion.

This is a time when our very consciences can be stirred by the simple invitation, "Let us pray."

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

The Sedalia school district tax levy for 1936-37 has been reduced ten cents on the $100 valuation, or from $1.45 to $1.35, the board of education announced.

FORTY YEARS AGO

At the close of the winter semester April 18 at the University of Missouri, Harold Dean, a Sedalia student, will be one of five from that school who will be employed by the Ellison-White Chautauque Company, accompanying them on a tour of the Pacific coast with headquarters in California. He will be an assistant business manager.

Jacob Deck, Jr., of Sedalia, will open a grocery store in conjunction with his father's meat market in Booneville on Main street near the Knights of Pythias building. He has been a traveling salesman for the Cudahy Packing Company with headquarters here.

Razor Blades Remove More Skin Than Electric Models

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Mongolism and a cause for hope, dogs and heart attacks, common colds, and sharp razors are subjects with a focus on health.

RAZOR'S EDGE

Razor blades take off four to 15 times as much skin as electric razors, say Boston researchers.

Seven times as many complaints of after-shave burn come from razor users as from electric shaver users in tests on 249 men and 120 women, indicates a report in GP, journal of the American Academy of General Practice.

HOPE FOR MONGOLISM

A young French scientist who has found a strange error in the body chemistry of mongoloid children now says: "There is no reason to say that mongolism is definitely incurable."

Tests on mongoloid children indicate the error may affect production of a key brain chemical, serotonin. The discovery comes from Dr. Jerome Lejeune of the University of Paris who also found the children possessed an abnormal number of chromosomes—those delicate strands of genes that determine what we will be.

Dr. Lejeune recalled an experiment 23 years ago in which fruit flies with abnormal chromosomes suffered from small, slitted eyes. When fed corrective material, the fruit flies became normal again.

So far Dr. Lejeune has been unsuccessful in finding an answer to human mongolism, reports

Medical World News. In fact, Dr. Lejeune says the error may not be the only or the responsible one in mongolism, but it is a lead.

DOG WITH A HEART

Dogs often fall victim to one of man's big enemies, heart disease, a new report shows.

A study of 3,000 dogs by University of Pennsylvania veterinarians found 290 with reliable signs of heart disease and 322 others with suspected disease.

THE COMMON COLD

There may be no practical vaccine against the common cold. The reason. There are just too many kinds of common colds.

Researchers report several, perhaps many, viruses cause colds. And the prevalent viruses in your neighborhood are always changing. Chances are if you do pick up a particular cold, you won't catch the same one again that season, since the body builds up defenses against that virus.

Yanks Are Ambushed

Arroyo is Hurt In Bat Practice

By MIKE RATHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Beset by ambushes along baseball's exhibition trail, the American League champion New York Yankees were faced today with the prospect of opening the season without southpaw relief artist Luis Arroyo.

The portly 32-year-old left-hander was struck on the left wrist in batting practice Tuesday by a line drive off the bat of rookie catcher Jesse Gonder just before the winless Yankees went out and lost their fourth in a row, 4-1 to the Milwaukee Braves.

Arroyo, who won five and lost one while making 39 relief appearances after being brought up from the International League, suffered an oblique fracture of the ulna bone. He will be out from three to four weeks.

The Los Angeles Dodgers made the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates their first victim with an 8-3 win that snapped the previously unbeaten Bucs four-game winning streak.

In other games, Don Zimmer's two homers led the Chicago Cubs to a 9-5 triumph over the Los Angeles Angels, a ninth-inning rally gave the Chicago White Sox a 5-4 win over Minnesota, four homers powered Cincinnati to a 7-4 victory over Detroit, Kansas City edged Washington 2-1, Philadelphia beat St. Louis 8-7 and Boston nipped San Francisco 6-5.

Doubles by Joe Adcock and Charlie Lau and pitcher Carl Willey's single accounted for two Milwaukee runs in the sixth before Hank Aaron clinched it with a two-run double in the ninth. Don Nottebart, 25-year-old right-hander, pitched four innings of perfect ball against the punchless Yankees.

The Dodgers put it away in the first against Pittsburgh's Vinegar Bend Mizell, with Frank Howard's 450-foot homer the key blow in a four-run uprising. Don Newcombe, Los Angeles starter, picked up the win although touched for a two-run homer by Smoky Burgess.

Zimmer's homers topped a 13-hit Cubs' barrage that included a pair of doubles by Ron Santo and triples by Al Heist and rookie Nels Mathews. Pitcher Bob Rodgers and Ted Kluszewski homered for the Angels off Chicago starter Glen Hobbie, who won it.

An error by the Twins' Jose Valdivielso on Minnie Minoso's grounder in the ninth opened the door for the winning tallies, with the clincher scoring for the White Sox on Luis Aparicio's single with the bases loaded. The tallies were unearned.

Frank Robinson, Gus Bell, Gordon Coleman and Elio Chacon smashed homers in the Reds' victory against Detroit. The five-hit pitching of Jim Archer, Dick Hall and Bob Hartman carried Kansas City to its win over the Senators, who pulled a triple play after the A's scored twice in the third inning.

Phil's rookie catcher Clarence Coleman stroked his fourth single in the ninth to score Bob Savage with the clincher against the Cards. San Francisco's Willie Mays and Boston's Jackie Jensen traded early two-run homers, but the Red Sox won it when Billy Harrell walked with the bases filled in the ninth.

Patterson said he wanted to fight more often "despite the government." He was referring of the imposing tax he will have to pay.

Ingo Belted By Tax Claim Of $1-Million

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, belted by a $1-million tax claim, was scheduled to battle another round with the U. S. government today while Floyd Patterson headed home to figure out whom he is going to slug next.

The heavyweight champion, a knockout conqueror of the big Swede in the sixth round Monday night, probably will face England's Henry Cooper in New York next June or September.

Sonny Liston of Philadelphia, Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore., and other contenders have been mentioned as possibilities. But Cooper, unbeaten in his last seven fights, is understood to have the inside track if he gets by Welshman Joe Erskine in London next Tuesday night.

Johansson had hardly recovered from his kayo defeat when Uncle Sam tossed another financial hammer at him. This time the man with the beard demanded another $411,620 for 1961 to go with a back tax claim of $598,181 for 1959 and 1960.

In addition, the U. S. Immigration Service handed Ingo an order temporarily banning his departure from this country. He probably will lounge around in the sun at Palm Beach for a week or so.

The 28-year-old businessman-fighter was subpoenaed for a U. S. courthouse appearance at Miami today. The government action was aimed at tying up any funds Ingo may have received in advance as well as money promised him by Feature Sports Inc. and Tele-PromPTer. TPT handled the television, movies and radio rights on the Patterson-Johansson fight.

Johansson already has received $550,000, including $300,000 for 1959-60 and $250,000 for the third fight. This has been transferred to a Swiss bank. Johansson claims Swiss residence and says he is an employee of Scanart, a Swiss corporation.

Johansson's lawyer, Matthew Manners of New York, contends Ingo does not have to pay U. S. taxes because he pays Swiss taxes—a light bite of about 10 percent compared to the 87 percent bracket he falls into here.

Manners claims that under a treaty with Switzerland, the United States is not entitled to taxes on money earned by the Swiss Corporation.

Johansson earned about $715,000 Monday while Patterson grossed close to $1 million.

Patterson said he wanted to fight more often "despite the government." He was referring of the imposing tax he will have to pay.

Boyer Replaces Stan Musial As Cards' Leader

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Ken Boyer, third baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, has established himself as the club leader, a position held so long by Stan Musial.

The 29-year-old Missourian, who has been the top offensive and defensive performer on the team in each of the past three seasons, has reached a position on the club where younger players come to him for advice and counsel. He has taken his new responsibilities in stride.

"It's nice to know that the boys have confidence in me and it's even nicer to know that Solly Hemus will back me all the way," Boyer said.

"But as for replacing Musial as the leader, I can't buy that. No one can replace Stan. I go to him for advice today just as I did when I first joined the club."

There's no question, however, that Boyer has become the club's top performer on the field. In each of the past five years, save one, he has hit at least 20 home runs, has driven in at least 90 runs and had batted over .300.

More Games Set

At-Large Teams In First Test

By DON WEISS

Associated Press Sports Writer

St. Bonaventure and Louisville, couple of handy at-large teams, won their first tests in the NCAA basketball tournament — thanks to a couple of second-half surges.

The Bonnies, the nation's No. 3 team, rallied to beat little Rhode Island 86-76 and Louisville's Cardinals broke away after the intermission to topple Ohio U. 76-70 Tuesday night, joining Morehead (Ky.), hulking Wake Forest, and sharp-shooting Princeton as first-round winners in the start of the NCAA eliminations.

Three more games tonight — Marquette at Houston, and Arizona State U. vs. Seattle and Southern California vs. Oregon at Portland, Ore., will complete the first-round scrambling and provide the full 16-team lineup for regional semifinals at Charlotte, N.C., Louisville, Lawrence, Kan., and Portland on Friday and Saturday.

The four regional winners advance to the national semifinals and final at Kansas City, March 24-25.

St. Bonaventure, an 84-82 loser to Ohio State earlier in the season, got 34 points from sophomore Fred Crawford and 29 from All-America Tom Stith in fighting off pesky Rhode Island in the middle part of an Eastern regional tripleheader that drew 18,327 to New York's Madison Square Garden. The Bonnies, now 23-3, will be matched in the Eastern semifinals at Charlotte Friday night against Wake Forest, the muscular, hard-driving Atlantic Coast Conference champion which made up a 10-point halftime deficit in the Garden windup and routed St. John's (NY) 97-74.

Princeton, now matched with St. Joseph's (Pa.) in the other Charlotte test Friday, spilled George Washington's Southern Conference Kings, 84-67 in the Garden opener. St. Joseph's drew a first bye.

Louisville's victory came in the Mid-East regional at Louisville and advanced the Cardinals (20-7) against defending NCAA champion Ohio State and its 29-game winning streak Friday night. Morehead, champion of the Ohio Valley Conference after a three-way playoff with Eastern Kentucky and Western Kentucky, thumped Xavier of Ohio 71-66 at Louisville with Grammy Williams and Ed Noe each scoring 21 points. Morehead (19-10) will play four-time champion Kentucky, the Southeastern conference representative making a record 12th appearance in the NCAA.

In tonight's games, the Houston-Marquette winner will advance to the Mid-West regional at Lawrence Friday against Kansas State champion of the Big Eight, in a doubleheader also matching Cincinnati and Texas Tech; while the two Far West winners will advance to the Portland regional Friday against each other in a doubleheader that also matches Utah and Los Angeles Loyola.

More than 25,000 fans saw the five NCAA tip-off games Tuesday night (7,300 at Louisville) and the indication is there are plenty of surprises coming up.

TV Viewing Could Bring Bad Injuries

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — — The way things are going, it won't be long before television-watching becomes more dangerous than bathing, currently the most perilous household activity.

After all, a person in the average television home devotes more than five hours a day to watching the small screen—more hours than is spent on any activity except sleeping and working. A little medical library is beginning to shape around its occupational hazards.

Recently the Journal of the American Medical Association gravely reported on an epidemic of "Dodge City syndrome," gunshot wounds in the right feet of young American males.

It is caused by practicing western-style fast-draws with loaded revolvers and bad timing.

Now comes a University of Southern California neurologist warning about "television elbow." This, explains Dr. A. A. Marinacci, involves painful nerve injuries caused by resting the elbows on the arms of a chair for prolonged periods while TV-viewing. If the practice continues without treatment, he warned, it can even lead to paralysis of the hands.

Actually, the most common danger of TV-watching is caloric. Frequent trips to the refrigerator have become the viewer's equivalent of the seventh-inning stretch. Researchers last season made a study of TV snack-habits and found that the favorite nibble of the nation consists of potato chips, although nuts, candy, soft and malt drinks were all high on the list. All these may be delicious, but they are also hellishly fattening.

The other day an automobile executive warned a group of advertising executives about a disease he called "mass psychological deafness to TV commercials." While harmless—in fact, often delightful—to the viewer, it is extremely painful to the sponsor.

There are still other hazardous areas yet to be authoritatively explored.

My mother, for instance, had her leg broken by the Garry Moore Show. Her foot went to sleep while she was watching in rapt concentration. This resulted in a nasty fall and six weeks in a plaster cast.

On the other side of the coin, there are more and more people complaining that they find TV better than a sleeping pill: "I just can't seem to keep my eyes open," is the complaint.

A few final (one hopes) words on the recent Sullivan-Paar imbroglio: If anyone emerged the winner, an over-night rating by the American Research Bureau indicated it was Paar.

Last week, if the bureau's seven-city sampling of audiences were projected on a nationwide scale, the average Paar Show was seen by some 10,800,000 viewers in 5,400,000 homes.

While Paar was on his show Monday night, this audience just about doubled.

But after Paar turned over Monday night's show to Hugh Downs and the entertainers, about 7,000,000 people gave up and went to bed.

Car Crashes Into Group of Workers

MUNFORDVILLE, Ky. (AP)—One man was killed and five injured when an automobile plowed into a state highway garage where they were eating lunch Tuesday. The crash also knocked down a sign on the wall of the garage which read:

"This county has operated 33 days without a lost-time accident. Previous record 253 days. Be safe today."

Killed was Hardy Atwell, a 50-year-old laborer. The driver of the car was only slightly injured. He told police he blacked out.

Mrs. Roy Mayes had the program on "Give Thanks in Lent" with a sacrificial luncheon at noon. There were 21 members present.

The world banks were turned in with $23.50 being collected.

Lancaster, Tracy Best Of Friends

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Some days you just can't make a buck in this town.

Hear me out. There is this Oscar race, see, and a couple of guys in it named Burt Lancaster and Spencer Tracy. The gimmick is that they're both working on the same picture right now, "Judgment at Nuremberg."

So what would be more natural than a feud between these two hot contenders?

I tried it out with Lancaster. "Pretty hammy guy, this Tracy, huh?" I said insinuatingly.

"What's that?" Lancaster inquired. I confessed my mission and he said sadly, "Things are pretty tough in your racket, huh, kid?"

Failure. Okay, I tried it with Tracy, who can be counted on to growl or grouse on any topic. "Quite a ham, that Lancaster," I commented offhandedly.

"He's a fine actor," Tracy corrected. "I think he might walk off with the Oscar this year. Either him or Jack Lemmon. Me? I ain't got a chance. They wouldn't give it to me again. I've had it."

Double failure. Well, you can't win them all. Anyway, I got a chance to sit in Tracy's dressing room.

As every film historian knows, Tracy has a couple of Oscars, dating back to 1937 ("Captains Courageous") and 1938 ("Boys Town"). He could be the first star to hit a triple, since he's up for "Inherit the Wind."

"I'll never make it again," he insisted. "I don't really care. Not about the final award, anyway; it doesn't matter to me what the 2,400 members of the academy think. But I am pleased with the nomination, because that is voted

Out of State Guests Visit In Otterville Homes

Miss Joyce Langston, Tampa, Fla., spent some time during the weekend with Miss Judy Hansen.

Dr. and Mrs. B. B. Baker and family, Tulsa, Okla., were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baker.

Mrs. Eleanor Sharp, Kansas City, Kan., was called here on account of the serious illness of her uncle, J. H. Gunn.

by the actors only. That means something."

Will he attend the festivities this year?

"Hell, no, I didn't even go when I won," he replied. "Well, I did go one time. The other time I was in the hospital having a hernia operation."

Negro Redcap Crusader For Many Drives

FLORENCE, S.C. (AP)—James Jones, a stocky, friendly redcap, today will complete the 24th year of a dedicated crusade against children's diseases.

The crusade began in 1937 when his childhood sweetheart died of polio.

Since then, Jones, a Negro, has raised $148,659.71 for fund drives dedicated to fighting children's diseases, principally the March of Dimes.

Every year in late February and early March, Jones rides his bike from the railroad station a mile to the downtown area during off hours, lunch periods, and in between trains.

He has given up many vacations, off-duty days, holidays and Saturday nights. Rain or cold has made little difference.

He takes his post near a bank, a strategic street corner, or wherever people gather. He holds out a large glass jar inscribed with the name of the particular drive for which he is working.

He has a cheery greeting, a big smile. Residents of this city of 24,000 have come to know him. He doesn't have to ask for contributions.

His collections for the March of Dimes during his current four-week campaign stood at $7,660.86 Tuesday night.

Waters Will Flow Green for Holiday

ASBURY PARK, N.J. (AP)—Three lakes and 1,000 feet of ocean front at Asbury Park will take on the hue of the emerald isle on Sunday.

The city fathers will tint the waters with dye along the length of the boardwalk in celebration of St. Patrick's Day while a band dispenses Gaelic airs and vendors hawk green jelly apples.

The dye is the same type used by downed military fliers to mark their position. In powder form, the dye is orange but when it hits the water it turns a bright, luminous green.

Kennedy's Sister Loses Her Appendix

BOSTON (AP)—President Kennedy's sister, Mrs. Eunice Shriver of Chicago, was reported doing well Tuesday night following an appendectomy in St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

Her surgeon, Dr. Roy J. Hefernan of Brookline, said the president's 38-year-old sister "came through it well. She was in the operating room about an hour. I expect she will remain in the hospital about a week."

Young Man Killed As Truck Overturns

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP) — Richard Williams, 19, was killed late Tuesday when a truck overturned at the city dump.

Williams was riding with Leonard James Robinson, 42, a tree trimmer.

Authorities said a car and trailer stopped in the road leading to the dump and Robinson's brakes failed. He turned the flatbed truck up an embankment and it toppled over. The truck was loaded with timber.

Williams was the son of Mrs. E. R. Pennington of Columbus, Kan. He lived in Joplin.

Community TV Firm Is Making Too Much

HARLAN, Ky. (AP)—There are plenty of firms who don't make money, but the Harlan Commuty Television Inc., has just the opposite problem. It can't seem to stop.

The citizen-owned corporation was formed as a non-profit business to bring television reception to this mountainous area.

Original shares were priced at $100. Too much money. They were devaluated. Still too much. Devaluated again—this time to $20. Still too much.

So the firm returned $40 to each subscriber—and hopes it reaches a balance some day.

Last public execution, a hanging, in the U.S. occurred in Kentucky, in August 1936, according to Encyclopedia Britannica.

Negro Janitor Will Have Funeral Wish

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — In death, John Alcorn, a 77-year-old Negro janitor at the University of Kentucky, will have his wish fulfilled.

His funeral will be held Friday at Stately Memorial Hall, where he was caretaker for 15 years.

Alcorn died Monday. The request was contained in his will. "He was more than just the caretaker," one of Alcorn's sons said. "He loved the building."

Boyle Pours Out Pertinent Facts Picked Up Along Way

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — How sure are you of your own teeth? Nearly 22 million Americans don't have teeth, about 13 per cent of us all. The tooth you may save by brushing could be your own!

Here's an old reminder of a present truth: One marriage in four ends in divorce.

I am informed that if you melt ed the Statue of Liberty down, you could make 30 million pennies from the copper of it. But since the old girl has given 10 times that many golden dreams, it is likely we can continue to afford to keep her on her same old stand—better investment.

Can you name four animals whose names end in "x"? Don't overlook ibex, lynx, fox and ox. Five years after cancer is recognized in women, 37 per cent of them are alive; of men, 26 per cent endure.

Someone has figured out that 61 per cent of new car buyers live in the suburbs.

Nature note: The snail, often rebuked for its slowness, has a top speed of three inches a minute, yet retains an overlooked virtue—it is strong. It can pull up to 200 times its own weight.

Bad insects make us neighbors. Japan is troubled with an insect pest there called the Colorado beetle. Here it is called the Japanese beetle.

It was just 60 years ago that—in Wichita, Kan.—Carry Nation made her first hatchet raid against a saloon. You just never see girls like that any longer, although here and there you do encounter one who attacks a deaf bar with a broken martini glass while crying for more.

A nice hope: The average baby born in the United States today can expect to live half again as long as one born in 1900. The next problem is to explain to it why it is all worthwhile.

Here's a funny discovery: Psychologists have found that students who have the highest I.Q. and make the best grades also generally have the widest and readiest sense of humor. Moral: If you want better grades, laugh harder—particularly when the professor tells a joke.

How much do you dream? Science has found, about 20 per cent of the time, asleep. Awake, on the job? Well, what does your boss think of you?

The average American housewife carries out about 1,000 pounds of garbage yearly.

It was Joseph Hergesheimer who observed, "So long as you are learning, you are not growing old. It's when a man stops learning that he begins to grow old."

Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held with the Nautilus Club.

Knob Noster, WAFB Schools to Hold Joint Clothing Drive

The Knob Noster and Whiteman Schools again are joining in the annual Nation-wide Bundle Days Clothing Collection program of Save the Children Federation. The organization has been serving children around the world for the past 29 years.

Students, teachers, parents and friends are being asked to empty their closets, bureau drawers and attics and contribute good, usable clothing and shoes for babies, children and adults to this Bundle Day Collection. This clothing will be sent for use in the southern mountains region and in foreign lands.

Clothing may be taken to the high school or elementary building in town and to the Whiteman School on the base. The principal in each building will oversee the collection details.

The working dates are from March 13 to March 24 inclusive.

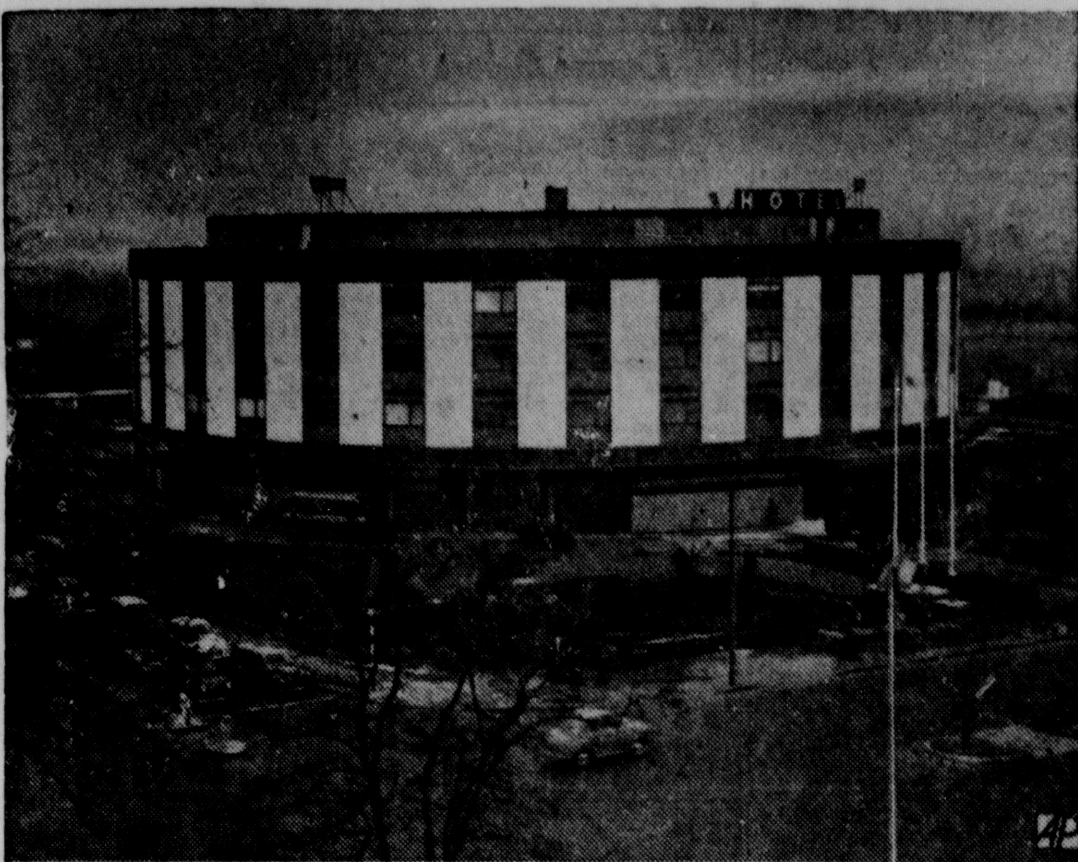

LaMonte Friendship Club Meets Thursday

The LaMonte Friendship Club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. Duffer with 12 members present. There was also one guest, Mrs. G. Murray, present.

Mrs. Bernice Wing opened the meeting by singing the club song. Committee reports were given. Mrs. Clyde Swope and Mrs. Ida King had the program on conservation.

Mrs. King read an article on young people going on a conservation tour and Mrs. Swope read articles on different parks and lakes in Missouri.

Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held with the Nautilus Club.

Plan Caesarean Birth for Heir To Clark Gable

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Clark Gable's baby will be born Monday by Caesarean section in the same hospital where the movie star died.

Judging from mail, most of his fans want the baby to be named Clark Jr. if it's a boy, but—"Clark and I talked about that," his blonde widow, Kay, said Monday. "He thought that would be too much of a handicap for a child to bear."

"He liked John Clark or Charles Clark. If it's a girl, he liked my middle name—Gretchen."

Mrs. Gable said she hasn't decided on a name. She said it doesn't matter to her, and didn't to Gable, whether the child—his first—is a girl or a boy.

Many Negroes Live In Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's capital is the only major American city where Negroes form a majority of the population, the Census Bureau said today.

The agency said preliminary data from the 1960 census shows that 411,737, or 53.9 per cent, of Washington's 763,956 residents are Negroes.

New York City has the largest number of Negroes, 1,087,931 or 14 per cent of the total population of 7,781,954.

KANSAS CITY'S OLDEST BUILDING in Old Westport

The old brick structure was built in 1837 by Capt. Joseph Parks, wealthy, educated Westport merchant and Shawnee chief of white and Indian blood, who led a company of his tribe in U. S. service in the Seminole War in 1838.

Here, too, from 1854 to 1859, Albert G. Boone, grandson of Daniel Boone, operated an outfitting store for western travel and maintained Southern immigration headquarters in pro-slavery Westport's feud with anti-slavery Lawrence for ideological domination in young Kansas Territory.

On the east wall of the building, now a tavern, a bronze tablet recounts the story.
